Our Story

Brief Church History

On July 3, 1870, thirteen persons met in the County Clerk's office of Jefferson County, Nebraska, to organize the First Baptist Church of Fairbury. From that date to this, the congregation of First Baptist Church has been serving the cause of Christ in Fairbury and Jefferson County and beyond. Throughout the years, the congregation has gathered at four sites in three buildings and been served by 28 pastors.

Our Building

FBC Fairbury's building is a beautifully well-maintained space with room for many activities and ministries.

Worship Area – Our worship area is handicap accessible, including a new handicap bathroom; and includes seating capacity for 300 on the main floor with another 50 seats available in the balcony area. A beautiful baptistry is located in the center of the stage. The worship area includes up to date multimedia presentation equipment and an updated sound system with the ability to enhance audio to the musical instruments and the worship team. The balcony area includes the sound and computer area which is equipped with all the necessary technology to create experiences that incorporate multimedia to enhance all aspects of worship.

The Pastor's Office – Located on the upper level, this area offers ample bookshelves, large desk and reception seating for intimate meetings.

The Secretary Office – The church currently employs a part-time administrative assistant with flexible office hours. The work room is attached to the administrative assistant's office and can be accessed from the hallway. It provides a convenient area with a copier, storage cabinets, and office supplies. Our four-level elevator stops in this room for access to the upper level.

Our Building

Foyer Area – The foyer area serves as a greeting and conversation area where everyone is welcomed. Special sign-up boards or handouts can be found here for easy access. Chairs and a table are placed for rest or conversation.

Upstairs Kitchenette – A galley style kitchen offers a countertop, sink, stove, fridge and microwave for small functions, personal lunch preparation and communion prep.

Basement Kitchen/Fellowship Hall Area – The kitchen is equipped with a large gas stove with burners and ovens, multiple kitchen sinks and two refrigerators. Pot-luck dinners, funeral lunches and special occasions have been prepared and served from this spacious kitchen facility. The fellowship hall boasts a newly insulated and drywall finished area. New tables and flooring make this space inviting and comfortable.

Classrooms – The facility, built as a Christian School, has five dedicated youth classrooms, two areas used as adult classrooms, two rooms dedicated to Shoebox ministry work area and storage and other rooms used for storage spaces. Rooms are split between upstairs and mid-level.

The Nursery – The nursery features a secure infant sleeping, nursing, and changing room. It also includes a play area. Volunteers fill the nursery schedule.

Fairbury, NE

Fairbury, NE

A lot goes into a decision on where to live and raise a family. We all dream of a safe, affordable community. A place that feels like home. Where neighbors look out for one another, and good memories can be made. On the other hand, it's also nice to be close to the action, with access to entertainment and good food. Where the wheels of tradition are always in motion, and a growing economy helps harvest a variety of jobs and business opportunities. The good news is, you don't have to live life in the fast lane to move forward. Welcome to Fairbury! All within a comfortable drive to Nebraska's capital city. Fairbury's timeless brick streets have paved the way home for generations of Nebraskans. Our historic downtown district, preserved to remind us of the dream that drove our community founders forward. The Little Blue River and the vast green space that once welcomed riders on the Pony Express and Oregon Trail, now feature campgrounds and parks for peaceful retreats into nature. This town, our town, is an active, prosperous community nestled in Americana charm. We invite you to experience the best of both worlds. Come home to Fairbury, Nebraska. A better place to move forward.
