

Storytelling

Cliff Barbarick teaches New Testament courses at Abilene Christian University, and he specializes in learning and telling books of the Bible by heart. This research shapes his work in churches and in the college classroom, and it has been a significant part of his own spiritual growth.

Dr. Clifford Barbarick

The church needs leaders who know the biblical story and can communicate it with clarity and conviction. In this workshop, Dr. Cliff Barbarick will help participants strengthen both their understanding of Scripture and their ability to share it effectively.
